Luke Presents 'Thunder In The Desert' Luke Days 2009. The United States Air Force's Air Demonstration Team, the Thunderbirds, will bring their special brand of high-flying excitement to Luke Days 2009, March 21 and 22. The theme for this show of historic and current air power will be 'Thunder in the Desert.'

Flying begins at 10 a.m. both days. Luke expects about 100,000 spectators to visit each day of the event. There will be food, games and plenty of attractions to make this year's event a memorable one.

The air show is open to the public with free admission, but does include a modest parking fee for the public at nearby off-base areas.

Joining the Thunderbirds in the air show lineup will be several military demonstration teams and civilian aerial shows. Invited demonstration teams include: Air Combat Command F-22 Raptor, U.S. Air Force Academy Wings of Blue, Red Bull MiG-17, CV-22 Osprey and A-10 Thunderbolt aerial demonstrations. More acts are confirming their performances every day. Not all of the activities will be in the air. Numerous ground displays and attractions will be available for young and old. Read more.

"Design-A-Sign" Contest. Calling all young artists! Glendale children have the opportunity to display their artwork on the side of a city recycling truck through the Glendale Sanitation Department's "Design-A-Sign" contest.

Children ages 6-9 are encouraged to submit artwork highlighting the theme: "Recycling is for Everyone." Four winners will be selected, one from each age group. All qualified participants will receive a certificate of recognition and a special prize.

The winning artwork from each of the four winners will be featured on Glendale recycling trucks from Earth Day in April through America Recycles Day in November. All artwork must be submitted on 8 1/2-by-11-inch paper by Friday, April 10. Entries will be judged for creativity, use of color, relevance and adherence to contest rules. The contest is open to residents of Glendale only.

Mail entries to City of Glendale, Attn: Recycling, 6210 W. Myrtle Ave., Suite 111, Glendale, AZ, 85301-1700. With entry, please also include name, mailing address, city, state, zip, home phone number and age. For additional contest information, call (623) 930-2660.
